

Dear Parents and Carers,

The autumn leaves have been blowing through the doors this week which has meant that our cleaning staff have been in additional action with the vacuum cleaners at a day's end. Also, the change in temperatures can bring the onset of autumnal bugs, of which two have been harassing us at school: upset tummies and general colds. We do feel that, in many cases, it is best to be in school if possible, but with dodgy stomach bugs the "48 hour rule" must apply.

The clubs that we have advertised in The Insider in previous weeks have been very busy, which is great. Thank you to those of you who collect your child at the end of the day and for dealing with any extra washing generated due to the Sports Clubs! We appreciate that not everyone can become part of a team and some 'try-outs' bring disappointment, but the value of aspiration is clearly in operation.

 Arbor It is pleasing that so many of you have found your way into Arbor. This app allows you to keep track of certain information about your child in school, and there are further features that we shall activate over the course of this year. We have been using ePraise for some time to set homework and award points. Each day can see further points awarded, these going towards each pupil's total but also for their College. There are biweekly 'points boost' for attendance too. We shall continue to use this app for booking at Consultation Evening, the first of these this year is for parents and carers of Year 5 to meet tutors for a 'settling in' conversation on Thursday 20th October.

We have known and believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them.

1 John 4:16

This year's Open Evening will be on Thursday 13th October which has been in the diary here for the last 11 months—we do try and plan ahead!

Rev. C. Leach, Principal

This week's theme was:
Loving your enemies

Jesus said "You have heard people say, 'Love your neighbours and hate your enemies.' But I tell you to love your enemies and pray for anyone who mistreats you. Then you will be acting like your Father in heaven. He makes the sun rise on both good and bad people."
Matthew 5:43-45

Jesus,
You are such an amazing example to us, who we want to be like, and how we want to be treated. To love those who hate you is such a difficult thing, but even you experienced being hurt and pursued by people that wanted to kill you. We pray that you will give us your Spirit and knowledge to know how to love those that are most difficult to love. That you will give us the strength we need. For we long to live like you did. Bless us in this way.
Amen.

For the week ahead

The Fruit of Faith is:	Forgiveness	Love forgets mistakes; nagging about them parts the best of friends. Proverbs 17:9
The assembly theme will be:	Reconciliation	All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. 2 Corinthians 5:18-20

We ask your thoughts and prayers in the week ahead for:

The weekend	those affected by the Hurricane Ian	Monday	local charities that support the community of Redditch
Tuesday	local places of worship and community centres	Wednesday	the staff at the Alexandra Hospital
Thursday	our staff who run the regular clubs after school	Friday	the teachers and support staff of The Vaynor First School

Word of the Week

Each week, there is a word displayed here. If the pupils have a go at the tasks below linked to the weekly word, they will earn a point from their tutor. Once per fortnight the tutor will go through the previous two weeks' words and pupils will work collaboratively exploring their meanings, features and usage.

10 tips for parents and carers

HOW TO BE GREEN WITH YOUR TECH

Right now, humans aren't living sustainably: we're taking too many resources and not leaving the world in a fit state for future generations. Old tech products are a clear example: if we throw them away, the poisonous lead and mercury inside can get into the food chain through the soil. Recycling tech, though, has its own issues: it's often exported to countries where the law doesn't protect people from hazards. Whole villages (including children) sort through discarded devices to remove useful parts and substances like gold, silver and copper – often putting their health at risk. Finding ways to re-use tech is the greenest option.

So what can we do with those cupboards and drawers full of old phones and unwanted computers?
Reuse, recycle, donate or sell them!

1 DONATE THEM TO CHARITY

There are lots of charities that redistribute unwanted tech to worthy causes, either in the UK or in developing nations. If your old products are still working, this is a great option – as it means that new products don't have to be made. Search online for your nearest place that does this.

2 REMEMBER THE BATTERIES

Almost all batteries can be recycled – even the little 'button' ones from smaller gadgets. You could choose a box at home or school to keep used batteries in, and then take them to a designated place that collects them. Be very careful, though – button cells can be deadly if eaten by small children or pets.

3 USE YOUR ONLINE SAFETY KNOWLEDGE

If you're recycling, selling or repurposing any of your devices, make sure that all your personal data, private photos and so on have been deleted before the tech leaves your hands or is connected online.

4 REUSE THEM

Old smartphones can be used as webcams, security cameras, baby monitors or pet cams: there are apps that will configure them to do this. You can also turn an outdated phone into a TV remote control, an alarm clock that wakes you up with your favourite track, or a media centre you can take to places where you wouldn't risk your new phone.

5 TURN IT INTO SOMETHING NEW

Smartphones are more powerful than most older computers. If you have an unwanted android phone, it's quite easy to create a new computer – you could use an old TV as a monitor, meaning you just need a mouse and keyboard. There are also small devices you can buy which let you do the same with iPhones.

6 RETURN THEM

Return devices to the manufacturer or retailer you bought them from. Some manufacturers take responsibility for their products and accept them back, to refurbish and redistribute. If they don't, you could contact them and ask why: the more consumer pressure there is on shops and manufacturers, the more likely they are to act in a greener way.

7 SUPPORT SCIENCE

Let your old devices help modern research. Scientists currently investigating topics like far-off star systems, cancer treatment and earthquakes need enormous computing power. If your unwanted device is WiFi enabled, for example, you can connect it to a network so that it can boost scientists' research.

8 SELL THEM

This is also a green option as it means that fewer devices have to be produced. On top of that, you could also donate some of the money you make to an environmental charity.

9 RESEARCH DISPOSAL METHODS

If your device is beyond repair and no one wants it, get rid of it safely through a specialist tech disposal company. Check that your device won't be shipped off to another country for processing.
