

Walkwood
Church of England  Middle School

Appointment of Head of Art (Teachers' Main or Upper Scale + TLR-B £ 2,795)

Ofsted stated (2018):

“An impressive ethos pervades the school. Its motto ‘Love to learn, learn to live, live to love’ reflects the Christian principles that underpin the school’s work. The school is fully inclusive of all faiths and beliefs. It values each individual whatever their background, aptitudes and experiences. It has nourished a very positive climate for learning in the school, which helps all pupils to thrive.”

SIAMS (2017) identified:

“Parents speak highly of the care which their children receive and are very supportive of the vertical tutor groups which develop a caring, family environment. Pastoral care extends to all members of the school community. Staff also talk about the school having a family feel which is welcoming to new members of staff and supportive of all.”

The Governors of this Church of England academy are seeking to appoint a Head of Art who believes in nurturing children as individual characters, acquiring values which equip pupils to work with others in contributing to something larger than themselves. Additionally, our new colleague will believe in the interconnectedness of knowledge and skills, which demonstrating that the former is grounded and applied effectively through the latter.

The post is to lead the subject of Art, and to teach across KS2 and KS3, and across all ability ranges. The post holder will be responsible for planning and delivering high quality lessons and engaging pupils with activities that challenge and excite. The successful candidate will demonstrate consistently high standards of teaching and excellent classroom management, drawing on the great behaviour of our pupils. Additionally, the new Head of Art’s approach will allow pupils to flourish by sharing with them a love for the subject matter and a desire to learn.
