

	Spiritual	Social	Careers
MASTERY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Write longer detailed paragraphs about religions and beliefs throughout using philosophical and religious keywords accurately • Use developed reasons for & against supported by examples, evidence, religious teachings or quotations • Evaluate the similarities, differences, strengths, weaknesses of several opinions within & between religions and denominations • Explain the influence of the historical or social context • Include critique of views, sources and religious texts • Include some of your own research in your answer • Include references to religious texts. • Show some of your own thinking • Organise your paragraphs clearly to support your argument. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use new and sometimes difficult concepts and ideas, in a grammatically correct way, to effectively argue on both sides of a point. • Use key terminology correctly, always spelled correctly and in an appropriate context. • Structure work in paragraphs and include a clear introduction and a conclusion. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evaluate different careers options available to me • Evaluate the options choices available to me for GCSE • Evaluate the post 16/18 options available to me including apprenticeships • Evaluate the importance of self-finance
SECURE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Write detailed paragraphs about religions and beliefs throughout using philosophical and religious keywords accurately • Use developed reasons for & against supported by examples, evidence, religious teachings or quotations. • Explain important similarities, differences, strengths, weaknesses within and between religions • Explain the influence of the historical context • Begin to develop critique (are sources/views reliable or convincing?) • Write in paragraphs using connectives to link your argument 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can use differing ideas and opinions to argue on one side of a point. You use some key words correctly; they are usually spelled correctly. You structure your work in paragraphs, demonstrate the ability to use grammar without difficulty. You always use new terminology in the correct context. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explain what options choices I might have for GCSE • Know what the rights and responsibilities of a working young person are • Demonstrate an understanding of personal finance.
DEVELOP	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Begin to write more detailed paragraphs about religions and beliefs using a range of religious keywords accurately • Use developed reasons for & against supported by good examples, religious beliefs and teachings • Identify important similarities, differences, strengths, weaknesses within and between religions • Show awareness of the historical context • Write in sentences and use paragraphs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can use differing ideas and opinions to argue on one side of a point. You use some key words correctly; they are usually spelled correctly. You structure your work in paragraphs, demonstrate the ability to use grammar without difficulty. You always use new terminology in the correct context. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe what my post 14 options might be • Give examples of some employment rights of a young person • Recall how money matters
EMERGING	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Write accurately about religions and beliefs with some detail using a range of keywords accurately • Use developed reasons for & against supported by examples and religious beliefs • Identify important similarities, differences, strengths, weaknesses between religions • Write in simple sentences 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can make relevant points about a PSHE topic. You make it clear which side of an argument you agree or disagree with and write coherently. There are a few spelling or grammatical errors. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • List reasons why choosing the right options is important • Recall when I am able to work, I will have important rights • Describe the term wages, expenses and budgets